Chaos 2006

Rensselaer Central High School
1106 East Grace Street
Rensselaer, IN 47978

The Summer brought good times and relaxation until school rolled around. Then came Fall with the athletic seasons that will not be forgotten. Winter surprised us with its chilling temperatures and created friends and memories that will last a lifetime. Finally spring arrived and everything was wrapping up only to end with... THE LAST PIECE OF THE PUZZLE.

Graduating from RCHS ... Again

Language arts teacher and National Honor Society sponsor Mrs. Maureen Jungblut departed with her second RCHS graduating class, when she retired after 20 years of teaching at Rensselaer. To the right, she talks with Jessica Waling at the 2006 NHS induction.

To the right, Mrs. Jungblut accepts an award from the Class of '06 from Jessica Rusher and Morgan Hewitt. On the far right, she helps senior girls adjust their graduation robes.

Goodbye to friend, father and faithful worker

On April 20, 2006 RCHS lost a good friend when Larry Black graduated to another place. Not quite 51, he had worked in maintenance at the high school for nearly eight years. He is seen below with Chuck Rayburn.

Always a piece of the puzzle at RCHS, Larry could be seen solving temperature problems, getting things fixed or even helping move a car onstage for Grease.

This is the beginning of a new day. You have been given this day to use as you will. You can waste it or use it for good. What you do today is important because you are exchanging a day of your life for it. When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever; in its place is something that you have left behind...let it be something good.

Right: Jessica Evers (Miss Lynch) is all smiles after giving a great performance as everybody's favorite English teacher.

Lost In Paradise

Above: Kara Nagel, Adam Albrecht, and Emily Murphy decorate for Prom.

Right: Prom King Addrian Frederick and Prom Queen Katie Bulington shows their royalty after being crowned.

Second from Above: Meredith Gantt, Shayna Hesson, and Tracie Koebcke assembles a decoration before Prom.
Above: Adam Albrecht and Ryan Hunsley tied for the title of Prom Prince along with Princess Ashton Zickmund.
Below: Jessica Waling and Jamie Howell dance their senior prom night away.

Prom 2006

This prom was a lot of fun! It was a good end to my senior year.
- Amy Streitmatter

Prom was great. It was the best prom out of the three that I went to.
—Laura Warren

I had a great time with my friends and my boyfriend, John!
—Victoria Teach

From the top, Will Minter chats with Ashley Clarke just before the seniors are to line up. The class of 2006 gives retiring teacher Mrs. Maureen Jungblut a special presentation.
Mrs. Jungblut returns to her seat afterreceiving a special award for her service to RCHS. The band plays a selection entitled "Air for Band."

Congratulations to Victoria Teach
for a job well done.
Love Mom, Dad,
Amanda, Steve, John,
your entire family,
and of course 'Sidny!'

Ash-
It's hard to believe you're graduating. Where did all the time go? I can remember when you were a baby and seeing you for the first time. I was a young married mom that had no clue, but I took one look at you and knew everything would be fine. As you grew older you amazed me even more by your independance and will to help others. I know life wasn't easy, but you always seemed to make the bad times better and could see the best in someone when other failed to. I admire you for the person you have become. Good luck with your future and remember to "pray," live everyday to its fullest and NOTHING is impossible- reach for those stars-sis!

Love always and forever
Mom
